LATEST FROM BULLER.

London, May 30.—The following despatch has been received at the War Office, from General Buller:

"Newcastle, May 30.—The enemy having formed a laager east of the town at Dornberg, pressed my right rear annoyingly. On May 27 I directed a force under Lytleton, by Schanga-drift, on Dornberg. These movements have caused the enemy at Dornberg to retire north.

"Hildyard is at Utrecht and the town has surrendered. Clery is bombarding Laing's Nek. The enemy are much disheartened and were they not in such very strong positions, I doubt if they would show fight. The railway was opened to Newcastle on May 26."

Reports From Pretoria.

Pretoria, Tuesday, May 29.—An official war bulletin, just issued, is as follows:

"On Sunday a fight occurred close to Van Wyksrust in Gatsrand. The Federals fought well and the British troops seemed tired out. At dark the Federals were forced to retire in the direction of Van Wyksrust on account of the overwhelming force of British.

"The British attacked Witwatersrand yesterday and were in contact with the Federals at Gatsrand, but they were beaten back with good results by the Federals under Commandant Louis Botha. The Federals were heavily bomarded all day long, but kept their positions. The British loss is reported to be considerable.

"The British are near Utrecht and they are also marching on Laing's Nek."

A despatch from Johannesburg last night describes the town as intensely excited throughout the day on reports that the British were approaching; but says the excitement subsided in the evening, owing to rumors that the British had been driven back. There are large numbers of burghers at Johannesburg, but remarkable order prevails there.

Boat Was Untrue.

London, May 30.—The officials of the British War Office deny in unqualified terms the statement cabled to a New York newspaper that the War Office here had asked Lord Roberts if he believed he could land 100,000 of his troops in England before October 1.
According to the British War Office, the New York story is "ridiculous nonsense."

Californians Coming Home.

Chicago, May 30.—The twelve members of the track team of the University of California, arrived here last night and are quartered at the Lexington Hotel. The members of the team are in excellent shape and anticipate carrying off a few of the honors in the Western Intercollegiate meet at Ravenswood Saturday. Plaw thinks he will be in shape to better his recent marks.
The team will train at Marshall Field and Ravenswood, leaving for the Pacific Coast immediately after the meet Saturday.

We Have Just Received a Large Shipment of These Lights—

These lamps burn in such a manner that the combustion is almost perfect and for this reason the light is magnificently brilliant, smokeless and odorless.

The lamps are absolutely safe it being simply impossible to explode.

If you are tired of the bother of ordinary lamps, if you wish to rid yourself of the care, the above will appeal to you very strongly. When coupled with economy the appeal is irresistible.

The Angle Lamp accomplishes perfect illumination. It presents an opportunity of securing a light that is easily operated their cost. It provides a lamp for Homes, stores, offices, factories, halls,
